

Apology Letter

This is to certify that John Doe was unable to fulfill their responsibilities on June 28, 2025 due to the following reason:

"My apologies for missing the party! Turns out, a rogue swarm of killer bees (yes, killer bees) decided my backyard was the perfect place for a rave. I spent the entire evening fending them off with a spatula and a surprisingly effective hairdryer. True story."

This note serves as supporting documentation for their absence.
